

Dear

Thank you so much for your help with this ECP follow-up. Our English conversation partner program has been one of the most successful in building relationships with international students, very often leading them into a deeper understanding of Christianity. Only the Lord knows who will be in heaven because of these friendships!

The attached questions are guidelines. Please feel free to chat about other issues or ask other questions, but please respect the ECP's time. Some of the questions for Month Two might be applicable in Month Three and vice versa. I always enjoy hearing that the partnership is going well, but I especially want to know if there are problems, questions that we can answer, or help that we can give. We "require" only a three-month commitment, so when you make your final call, please find out if the ECP is going to continue with this student, or if they would like a new one - now or later (when?).

I know you will be in touch right away if there are difficulties or if the ECP needs resources. And by all means, if you have questions ~ the questions, if you think of different/better questions, or if you have other suggestions, we are always open to improving this program. If all is going well, please return this form to me at the end of the three-month period by email, snail mail, or (if it's a whole lot easier) leave me a phone message with all pertinent information. I greatly appreciate your labor for IFI and for the Lord!

Warmly,
